Recorded by Michele (actaruss1) Pellegrino, mixed by Jean Marc (pinpin) Pinget à A studio, Geneva 2004.
Mastered by Glenn Miller at Greenwood Studio, Nunningen, Switzerland. Illustrations and design by actaruss1. Published by Pragma Music and actaruss1.

Electro lounge & nu jazz. Oriental and latin sounds and rhythms.

By combining his jazz, ethno and jazz influences with electronic sounds, actaruss 1 composes contemporary musical parts. The intervention of musicians brings another more instrumental and more human dimension, to the electronic regularity. The result is a universal and futuristic musical experience.

Born from nu jazz and ethno music scenes, this album truly invites to travel.

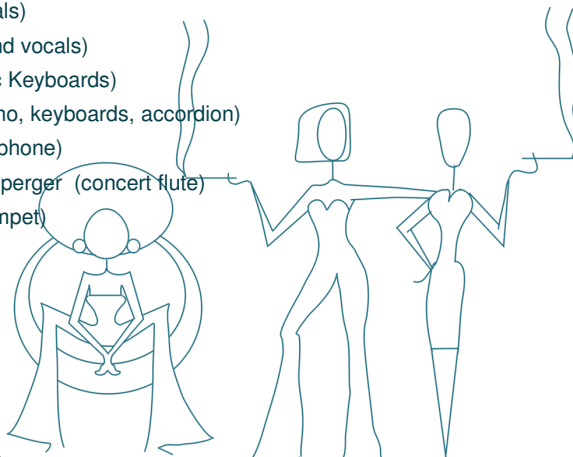

Inspired by multiple background from jazz, soul, bossa nova and reggae (Chet Baker, Miles Davis, James Brown, Bob Marley, Stan Getz, Carlos Jobim) to trend labels (Jazzanova, Kompost, Talkin Loud), actaruss 1 choosed to creation a fusion of musical styles through 11 tracks.

Religious traditional song of the East related by a crystalline voice, through electro tempos on a wave of sax and piano (Doldrums); Undulating Spoken words and electronic sonorities (Water n'Salt); Electro downtempo melodies recorded in New York (Flight 303); ...

The result is a universal and futuristic music, which mixes musics of the world and swaying downtempo rhythms. Cordially recommended to lovers of unexpected musical meetings or multicultural sound relaxation.
